Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. For as long as I can remember, my father was a captivating storyteller. During hurricane season when rain lashed the windows and wind rattled the shades to reveal lightning, he would gather us under his protective voice with these enticing words: "Come over here and sit by me, I feel a story coming on." He'd make himself comfortable in his easy chair in the warm kitchen while we scrambled to gather at his feet on the bare linoleum floor. The youngest child might try to squeeze into my father's chair but eventually ended up on the floor with the rest of us. Papa needed space for his arm movements to enhance the story. No lap holding for him. No favorites. If the lights flickered and then went out, so much the better. It only added to the excitement of the story as we huddled closer in the dark safety of Papa's voice. His stories usually began."Once upon a time" .and from there neither he nor we knew where the story would take us. Sometimes the stories involved a young person, lost and scared, facing adversity but triumphant in the end. At other times he'd tell us of his life as a young boy in the Azores, tending his goats on the hillside as he watched the fishermen below. The stories continued till the lights once again came on, and then no matter where he was in the story, he was finished. We'd protest and beg for more, but he'd say with a twinkle in his bright blue eyes, " To be continued tomorrow." But when tomorrow came, he might not continue with the story, depending on how busy he was. When finally coerced, he would...
